5X1 3. [] LIAISON I took [] to the Hill 25 to meet some of the staff people with whom we do business. We chatted with Frank Slatinshek, Chief Counsel, House Armed Services Committee.
During the visit, Slatinshek expressed serious concern that the wide range of differences within the Community of estimates concerning the performance of the BACKFIRE, a Soviet plane, will create very serious problems if the same data base is used by the Agency and the Air Force.
5X1 [] and I also chatted briefly with Al Tarabochia, Senate Judiciary Internal Security Subcommittee staff.

5X1 1. [REDACTED] LIAISON Called Bill Miller, Staff Director, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence, and told him that I thought the 5X1 session yesterday [REDACTED] with Mike Madigan and Rick Inderfurth, also of the Committee staff, went very well. I said we had discussed 5X1 several other matters including the question of the number of staff traveling [REDACTED] on 21 October. I made it clear that Mr. Knoche has said that we would accommodate as many as the Committee wanted but that Inderfurth and Madigan had reservations on how many should go.
I told Miller that Madigan and Inderfurth said they would check on this and be back in touch with us.

I also mentioned to Miller that we had received a call from Walt Sheridan, Chief Investigator, Subcommittee on Administrative Practice and Procedures, Senate Judiciary Committee, saying that the Subcommittee was going to conduct "oversight inquiries" into the death of Orlando Letelier.
Miller agreed that we should contact Sheridan and tell him that the Agency is cooperating with the Department of Justice within our guidelines, that this is a domestic investigation and any information they seek should come from Justice.

1. [REDACTED] LIAISON Spoke with Walter Sheridan, Chief Investigator, Senate Judiciary Subcommittee on Administrative Practice and Procedures, concerning his request of last week for information the Agency might have on the Orlando Letelier case. I told Sheridan that under our operating guidelines, we were cooperating with the Department of Justice on this matter and also were keeping the Senate Select Committee on Intelligence apprised. In response to Sheridan's query, I told him that the guidelines were our statutes, Executive Order 11905 and S. Res. 400. I told him that within these guidelines the Agency could not get involved in domestic activities or law enforcement matters. I told him that generally, in some cases, if the Justice Department feels that we may have in our foreign intelligence function material bearing on a case they are working on, we would provide it. I told him that Bill Miller, Staff Director, of the Select Committee, is the person we have been in contact with on this matter. Sheridan asked if we could do the same thing for their Subcommittee. I said that we are working with the Select Committee with the exclusive jurisdiction established by S. Res. 400 and there are representatives from the Judiciary Committee on the Select Committee. I gave him the names of Senators Birch Bayh (D., Ind.) and Strom Thurmond (R., S.C.). I told Sheridan it would be best for him to be in touch with Bill Miller and the Department of Justice if he wanted anything further, especially since they have oversight jurisdiction over the Department of Justice.

22. [REDACTED] BRIEFING Following Mr. Cary's suggestion, I checked with Al Tarabochia, Chief Investigator, Senate Judiciary Internal Security Subcommittee, as to whether [REDACTED] had ever testified on the Hill. Tarabochia kindly checked records of both open and executive hearings of his Subcommittee and the former House Committee on Un-American Activities, and found no record of such testimony by [REDACTED]. Our records show that [REDACTED] did appear before the House Judiciary Committee, Subcommittee on Immigration and Naturalization, in connection with approval for a bill to advance him eligibility for citizenship in May, 1963.
